

EUROCHAMBRES' reaction to Better Governance for the Single Market

EUROCHAMBRES is encouraged by today's communication on Better Governance for the Single Market, which demonstrates a clear focus by the Commission on stronger control and more effective delivery.

"The carrot of economic growth is apparently not sufficient to incentivise all member states, so the Commission must not shirk away from employing a stick approach swiftly and firmly when necessary. This communication suggests that the Commission accepts this responsibility; we trust that the member states will accept theirs when Heads of State discuss the communication at the end of June," said Arnaldo Abruzzini, Secretary General of EUROCHAMBRES
