

EU Summit / Next Generation EU: leaders must contribute to a V-shaped recovery

Speaking two weeks prior to the crucial EU Summit, EUROCHAMBRES President Christoph Leitl urged leaders to do everything they can to reach a compromise on the European recovery plan.

“We are coming out of a lockdown that brought productivity and demand to a dramatic standstill, but the speed and nature of the economic crisis also provide hope for a V-shaped recovery. Prompt and decisive policy actions are crucial for this, which is why the Summit in two weeks is of such importance. The mood music seems encouraging, but our businesses need urgently to see and feel tangible support as they strive to get through the crisis and drive Europe’s revival.”
